Family Activities near Rutledge, TN

Oct 24, 2026 to Jan 22, 2027, within about 50 miles of Rutledge. Grouped by month (by each event's start date), then by category. Distances are approximate. Weather: Open-Meteo daily forecasts out to 16 days (days 10+ labeled long-range); later dates show typical NOAA Knoxville-area averages, not forecasts. AccuWeather could not be read reliably, but each outdoor listing links to the town's AccuWeather page. Please confirm details on each event's page before you go. Each event title has two calendar icons to add it to your calendar.

What's New

- Clickable table of contents and page numbers
- Bolder month and category headings; bigger event titles
- New categories: Free Concerts and Food Trucks
- Calendar icons on every event: red "17" adds it to Apple Calendar, blue "G" adds it to Google Calendar

FALL FOLIAGE (AS OF OCT 24)

Smokies elevations above 4,000 ft are past peak and 3,000-4,000 ft are near peak. Lower elevations (Gatlinburg, Pigeon Forge, Townsend, Cades Cove, Foothills Parkway) are forecast to peak about Oct 30 - Nov 5. East Tennessee valleys should color up from the last week of October through the first week of November. Good nearby viewing: Clinch Mountain overlooks on US-25E near Bean Station; House Mountain State Natural Area (Corryton); Norris Dam State Park and the Norris Lake shoreline; Cherokee Lake from Grainger County Park and the Cherokee Dam area; Newfound Gap Road and the Foothills Parkway in the Smokies.
